

END OF AN EVIL ERA

Mata Ki Bhakt, Saakshi Karege Paapi Sheel Ka Saanhar....

The Hindu shastras call this the age of Kalyug; an era where evil prevails over good and humanity seems to have lost all moral values & spirituality. On Tuesday, 6th July, 'MATA KI CHOWKI', from the SaharaOne stable will embark on a journey that will see the end of Sheel Kumar at the hands of Vaishnavi's daughter Saakshi.

According to the current storyline, Sakshi finishes the tasks and rescues all family members from Sheel's chakravayuh. But according to Sheel, he has made her break the five Mahatatwa's and her connection with the divine is now lost. Sheel is now ready to kill Saakshi but he decides to kill her in front of Mata's statue. He is about to break Mata's statue when a hand stops him. It is Saaskhsi's hand as she drags him to the temple to kill him. Sheel Kumar is scared as he sees Saakshi as Mata's form of Chandika. At the temple, Mata appears and informs Sheel that Saaskhi has not committed any sin; rather she has done the holy act of serving her loved ones. As Saakshi holds a trishul to kill Sheel, he runs for his life but finds all three forms of Mata blocking his way.

He runs towards few devotees of Mata near the temple and pleads for help as Saakshi reaches with the trishul in her hand. Even the devotees there are overwhelmed with Saakshi's aura and move back. Sheel Kumar accepts all his crimes and sins in front of the devotees and pleads her for mercy. Seeing this Saakshi forgives Sheel and leaves. But Sheel gets up and attacks Saakshi with the same trishul. Bali comes in between and gets hurt. Saakshi kills Sheel Kumar eventually.

The death of Sheel Kumar establishes the fact that whenever evil flourishes the good takes over and destroys it. Mata ki Chowki is one such story, which can compel one to believe in the power of spirituality and morality. It is said, all bad things look for a good end. Mata Ki Chowki finds one.
