SaharaOne's Ganeshleela in a brand new format

To become a Socio – Mytho series

Starting March 25, Monday – Friday at 8.30. p.m

Ganesh, the elephant head God is one of the most popular and foremost worshipped forms of divinity - as a remover of obstacles and the embodiment of good luck, in the Indian system of beliefs and practices. Ganesh is regarded as the son of Shiva and Parvati (Shakti), the universal parents. 'Ganesh Leela' is a special feature on Lord Ganesh's life from his birth.

Ganesh Leela is getting into the socio- mythological phase from 25th March, 2010. It's going to be a good mix of social & mythology. The new story (social) will be set in a small town of Maharashtra.

The current story will be ending with Devyani & Kach cursing each other. The curse will carry on for ages and will have its effect even when the two are reborn as Veer & Bhakti.

Kach who had been an ardent devotee of lord Ganesh in his previous life will now be born as Veer and will be seen as devotee of lord Shiva while Devyani will be born as Bhakti and who had been worshipping lord Shiva in her previous birth will be seen worshipping lord Ganesh in this birth. Veer and Bhakti keep getting flashes from their past life. There is this strange karmic connection that the two can feel in this life as well.

Lord Ganesh, Lord Shiva and Mata Parvati are aware of Kach and Devyani's rebirth as Veer and Bhakti and every action in the social story will get a strong reaction from them. In their previous life Kach was supported by lord Ganesh while Lord Shiva always supported Devyani. This had created a rift between Lord Ganesh and Lord Shiva and this conflict being created between them will continue even now.

Although Veer and Bhakti feel the strange karmic connection between them what effect will the curse have on them in this new life??
