

Is it splitsvilla for Pallavi aka Bitto and her actor-boyfriend?

Pallavi Gupta who plays the title role in SaharaOne's Bitto, is apparently going through a strenuous phase in her personal life due to her career. According to our sources, "Pallavi is dating an actor, who is currently playing a leading role in one of the serials on another channel. She is going through a rough phase with her boyfriend and is on the verge of breaking up the relationship. The reason is the guy's insecurity. He doubts her and questions her for every little thing. Pallavi is apparently not very comfortable with his behaviour." Allegedly, the couple has been together for more than a year now.

When we spoke to Pallavi about this, she said, "I am so busy with work that I don't get time for my personal life. As far as love life is concerned, the situation is a little dicey." She later claimed to be "single."
