

Holi Hai...!!

~ It's the first holi celebration for Rasal and Ranveer after their controversial marriage ~

A folk narrative set in the sand dunes of Rajasthan; Kesariya Balam Aavo Hamare Des is the story of human emotions put in a unique way. It's Rukmini's struggle through life and its various situations.

Put in a precarious situation to choosing between her long time love Vikram and her sister's happiness, Rasal decides to go with the later. Rasal and Ranveer's marriage creeps in an uncanny situation in the life of both, Rasal and Rukmini. Rasal goes on to become the daughter-in-law of the house while circumstances leave Rukmini in tattered condition as one of the servants in her own home. Although Rasal gets married to Ranveer she is not able to forget her first love Vikram nor is she able to live with the fact that her loving sister is hated by Ranveer and left to fend the house as one of the servant. Her marriage with Ranveer is more of an arrangement than bliss and reflects every time through her actions and constant differences with him and the family.

In such frenzied family affairs, the festival of colors, HOLI, comes as a blessing for Bhavar Singh and his entire family. They decide to celebrate this holi in a grand way hoping to dilute the agony in the festive spirit and hopeful of blooming relationship between Rasal and Ranveer. Grand arrangements are made for the celebration especially since it's the first holi for Ranveer and Rasal after marriage. Rasal although is quite indifferent towards the entire festive mood around her in the family. She is fully aware of her sister Rukmini's plight that she is living a servant's life in her own house and can't be part of the celebration.

Will this holi bring back the lost colours in an already turbulent life of Ranveer, Rasal and Rukmini?
