

Looks matter for Sudha!

Mumbai Dec 18, 2009 : Sudha Chandran loves get ups! And we could see that in her love for big bindis, heavy-duty sarees and elaborate eye make-up in Kahin Kisi Roz. Well, we don't know if she likes them off screen, but on screen, she did get many a chance to adorn in the avatar of Mahashweta Devi, a Godwoman who's actually a conwoman in Mata Ki Chowki. And to compliment her role, the actress will again be seen in an elaborate get-up – big bindis, open hair, Kohl-lined eyes and heavy jewellery, even a nose ornament! Now we're wondering if Sudha gave the green signal to his role only after listening to what she has to look like in the show... may be she wants to get back into the limelight like her Kahin Kisi Roz days. Of course, it's not like Sudha hasn't been doing shows all this while, just that there was nothing so worthwhile. She'll agree with us on this.

- Deepali Dhingra